

Exhibition Information

The piece gallery is a non -profit exhibition space run by c.a.s.e. a group of practicing artists on a voluntary basis.

The gallery is available for solo-, group- and mixed exhibitions.

The rental cost for the gallery is $450 for three weeks and $550 for 4 weeks. The commission on any works sold will be 33 %.

c.a.s.e. will:

During the time of rental we will maintain and attend the gallery, provide labels, lighting, plinths, press releases and general help including assisting you on opening night serving guests, supplying wine and advice regarding all exhibition matters. Opening nights are generally on Fridays from 6 pm - 8 pm.

You are required to:

- organize and pay for your own invitations, posters, catalogue and advertising in any local papers.
- If you decide to advertise, give us information and costs involved 2 weeks prior to show.
- give us information and details for press releases 2 weeks prior to show.
- provided label information either via e-mail or disc to be formatted at least 2 days prior to the opening.
- provide food for the opening

If you contact us by mail please remember to include a self-addressed envelope so we can return your proposal and label all material clearly.

For any further information please contact: Rochelle Summerfield, Christine Willcocks, Susanna Pohlen, Robyn Sweaney, Liz Deckers or Sue Davidson during gallery hours on 02 66843446.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.
